

Problema de alocação de berços multi-objetivo

Victor Hugo Barros, Alexandre César Muniz Oliveira e Solon Carvalho

The berth allocation problem is defined as planning of which position along the quay and when each vessel optimally should moor. This paper consists of a brief literature review of Multiobjective Berth Allocation Problem (BAP). A multiobjective mathematical model is presented and conclusions are presented.